THE GRANTOR

Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 168 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Following graduation from Pawtuxet University with full honors and two degrees, bachelors and masters in public administration, Arthur Jacobson married his college sweetheart, Jean Hamilton. On returning from their honeymoon in Europe, Arthur became executive director of his family's foundation, The Rhode Island People's Foundation, which his family had started during his junior year at prep school. Four and a half years into this position he entered into an eighteen month period in which he lost his best friend and thesis advisor at Pawtuxet University to Alzheimers and four others through death: his advisors wife, his mother, his father and finally his wife in a tragic automobile accident. The combination of all these losses led to a deepening depression and the psychiatrist who treated him recommended that he relocate himself to a part of the country as different from New England as possible so as to escape the constant reminders of these losses. Arthur traveled to the southwest to search out a location for himself as well as for the foundation of which he was now board chairman as well as executive director. His two staff persons relocated with him. The transition and the work that was involved in relocating the foundation took his mind largely off his past losses and he had only to find another woman who he could love unreservedly to complete the cure of this depression. Two years into Tucson he relocated his residence from a residential hotel to a well located duplex. There he quickly met the seventeen year old, but highly intelligent and mature, woman who was his landlord's daughter Heather. A strong attraction developed between the two which ultimately led to their marrying the summer before...
