

The Carpenter s Son (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By H A Tupper

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Carpenter s Son And what was that reason? There Is a doctrine of correspondence between the material and the immaterial, between the natural and the Spiritual, which, though it may be pressed too far, has In it a basis of truth. The material and the natural are the phenomena of the immaterial and the spiritual, and are sometimes their representatives and symbols. It is designed by the universal author that we should pass from the obvious to the recondite, from the manifest to the hidden, from the human to the divine. Hence the trade of this so called carpenter of Nazareth was given to or assumed by him because it was the best practical representation of what he was really and essentially. He was a maker, a builder. Who built the spire of grass with its measured frame and its fibrous covering and its graceful proportions and its complete symmetry; and the more elaborately constructed tree with its root-foundation, its supporting trunk, its bracing branches and twigs and its foliage-covered Whole; and the boundless forests of nature and the plantations..
