Sunstone Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .These verses reflect a child's response to nature: the first snow, twilight on the prairie, dark of the desert, winter footprints. Yet they all carry an undertone of sadness, of the transiency of life, unusual to a young boy. The title poem has the same brooding vision imbuing the great lyrical poetry of the ancient Nahuatl people of Mexico, the Aztecs and the Toltec poet-king Nezahualcoyotl. In the foreword Frank Waters salutes Concha, not only for his precocious talent and enviable success, but as a growing artist of substance and integrity, . . . recording the steps of his way toward that wholeness of spiritual maturity that sometime must be achieved by us all.
