Reviews

It is just one of the most popular ebooks. It is written in simple words and not confusing. I am just happy to tell you that this is actually the finest ebook I have ever read inside my very own existence and may be the greatest ebook for all time.

The following highly interesting and valuable communications, are reprinted in this place by permission of the several writers, and for the purpose of concluding my little volume with an appropriate climax. The first was addressed to the Editors of the National Intelligencer, and published in that journal subsequently to the appearance of my Letters from the Alleghany Mountains. The second was addressed to J. S. Skinner, Esq. , but also published in the Intelligencer; and the third, introducing a letter from Professor C. U. Shepard, was originally addressed to the Editor of the Highland Messenger, (Ashville, N. C.) in which paper it made its first appearance: and the fourth communication, by Professor E. Mitchell, addressed to the Hon. Mr. Clingman, was published in the NewYork Albion. C. L. To the Editors of the National Intelligencer. Ashville, North Carolina, October, 1848. Gentlemen : As you have recently been publishing a series of letters in relation to that portion of the Alleghany range which is situated in North Carolina, you may, perhaps, find matter of interest in the subject of this communication. My purpose in making it is not only to present to the consideration of those learned or curious in geology facts singular and interesting in themselves, but also, by means of your widely disseminated paper, to stimulate an inquiry as to whether similar phenomena have been observed in any other parts of the Alleghany range. A number of persons had stated to...
