

Burden of Sisyphus: A Gripping Psychological Thriller with a Brilliant Twist (Paperback)

By Adam Greyson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .James Findlay has made some powerful enemies. As his small, island nation s only representative to the Paris climate conference, he holds a unique amount of power of his own. But he knows too much. For instance, he knows that Earth is still in an Ice Age, after 2.6 million years of persistent polar ice. Why would this be dangerous? Because the international power brokers depend on the conference delegates approving their measures. If global warming is found to be good, instead of dangerous, their multi-trillion dollar plan will fail. Warmth in an Ice Age might not be seen as dangerous. Findlay also knows that the power brokers have been confusing pollution and carbon dioxide. He knows that CO2 is a beneficial gas which has actually been greening the Earth-a fact that the UN s scientists are not discussing. After Findlay is drugged at the conference, he realizes that someone is desperate to stop him. When Findlay finds his fiancée, Moira, murdered in their hotel room, he suspects that someone at the conference had arranged to kill her. He feels that someone...
