Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Year Book of the Chapel of the Cross, 1921 Report of the Secretary of the Vestry on the Parish Work in 192] In the year just closed the Parish has tried to take its part in the many sided activity of the general Church in its mission of building up the spiritual life of men and women all over the world. At the same time we have been concerned with many local matters of practical interest connected with our special. Work here at home. There has been a careful supervision of Church property, involving repairs, enlargement of equipment, extension, and in general, the introduction of modern methods suitable to the needs of the time. The work of the Vestry has therefore been, not wholly, but largely of a practical character. In the eleven meetings that were held these practical matters were fully discussed and plans were made for the execution of the work. Detailed mention need not be made here of the repairs and improvements made in Church property. There were many. But it is proper to state that the Rector himself has freely given his time and personal service in many of these matters. We are also indebted to Mr. Carter for very valuable assistance given with great skill and as a labor of love. With his own hands he has repainted and varnished parts of the wood work of the church, and in general he has been zealous in planning and carrying out important repairs and improvements suggested to him by his large experience. Time does not permit the mention here of many similar matters supervised by members of the Vestry and congregation or actually carried...
