

GPS: Your Guide Through Personal Storms (Paperback)

By Dr James Coyle

iUniverse, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Storms are always affecting our lives--even when everything seems calm. We are always driving into a storm, driving through a storm, or driving out of a storm. These storms can last for minutes, hours, days, weeks, or even years. Dr. James Coyle, a chaplain and mental health specialist, shares life lessons on recognizing these storms and navigating them so you can continue in your desired direction. Drawing on his personal experience, including a suicide attempt, divorce, and career challenges, he helps you - pinpoint the choices you've made that have led to specific outcomes; - focus on the important things that anchor your existence; - help yourself by helping others; and - approach each day with hope, faith, and love. Filled with anecdotes, true stories, and exercises, your family, friends, and associates can also use these lessons to navigate life's most difficult curves, potholes, and steep climbs. Stay on track on your life's journey with the insights in GPS: Your Guide through Personal Storms.
