The President read the resolution passed at the Extraordinary General Meeting (see p. 117) which he stated had been that afternoon brought before the Council, by whom it was being carefully considered. Dr. Armstrong, referring to the ruling given by the President at the previous meeting that a paper read in the absence of the author could not be discussed, drew attention to Bye-law XIV, and contended that this bye-law expressly provided that every paper communicated to the Society should be open to discussion. He stated that during the whole course of his experience, extending over 30 years, it had always been the practice of the Society, when the occasion arose, to discuss papers read in the absence of their authors. Dr. Perk In, in reply to a question by Dr. Armstrong, said that in the past papers had often...
