This short story is a narration of the life of Narrow, a poor suburban girl. See her life unfold through her interactions with her wealthy upper-class school colleagues - from a period of peace that is suddenly brutally interrupted by a civil war which alters their paths and changes their lives forever! Summary Narrow crook is a story about a withdrawn child who, together with her family, is trapped for years in a country during a civil war. The narration begins with her life before the civil war breaks out and continues to recount her experiences during the war, including how the rebel forces / soldiers attacked her school during classes and later seized their town - at one point holding her entire family, as well as other families, hostage and at gunpoint within a complex.
