HADASSAH FOR THE HEALTH OF THE PEOPLE: THE HEALTH EDUCATION MISSION OF HADASSAH - THE AMERICAN ZIONIST WOMEN IN THE HOLY LAND (PAPERBACK)

Samuel Wachtman s Sons, Inc., United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Hadassah Book covers the topics of women, public health, and Zionism. The book focuses mainly on the unique endeavor of the members of the Hadassah Women s Organization, who took upon themselves the mission of building modern public health services for the Jewish community in Palestine under British rule, based on their American experience in that field. During these first ten years, public health services were provided to 46,000 pregnant women, 53,000 infants, 700,000 house visits were made by nurses, and 1.7 million visits were made to the 44 maternal and infant welfare centers that provided services nationwide. This book is the story of these determined American Zionist women and their remarkable achievements and contributions to the health of the Jewish community in Palestine, which was the early offspring of a nation in building. The Hadassah Book also includes original pictures that were discovered only a few years ago in one of...
