Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Mirror: Baltimore College of Dental Surgery A man whose name is known throughout this country, and indeed in every land where the profession of dentistry is practiced. By his many years of service as a teacher, and by his arduous labor and self-sacrifice in the interest of his profession, he had established a circle of loyal friends from the Atlantic to the Pacific. His was a busy life. Many a professional man with such an active and full practice as lie attained would have been content so to live and die. but not Dr. Smith. He was SO filled with robust manhood and energy, with love of nature and his fellow-man. that he overflowed the bounds of professional life, and his energies found work to do and pleasures to enjoy in many directions outside of his daily work. In this manner he developed his many talents and presented to his friends new phases of character, which, like flashes from a brilliant stone, each seemed brighter than the other. As a teacher, those of the class who have had the privilege of sitting under him. those former students who have graduated and gone forth, know the devotion and interest lie took in his work. Few teachers ever got closer to their students hail Dr. Smith. He was so human, so easily approached, and withal so lovable, that the influence lie exerted on the students of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery will live forever. As a dentist, he was known as a skillful and rapid operator, quick and sure m diagnosis. Natural and sympathetic in manner, he soon gained not only the confidence of his...
