Fame and Misfortune: Broken Hearts Broken Rules 2015

By Jan Mount

Penskills Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The beautiful game! It s should be called the despicable game! Max Rawlings.A compelling story of romance and passion, against a background of skulduggery and bribery in modern day sport, particularly football s Premier League. This has proved to be a very topical subject in the light of recent exposures of corruption in various fields of sport, especially the shocking FIFA revelations! Narrative explores the backgrounds, fates, fortunes and love interests, both romantic and explicit, of all characters, linking them intrinsically in the storyline and dramatic ending. The world is shocked and saddened as news breaks about the unfathomable death of the much loved, handsome Max Rawlings: footballing legend, fashion icon, media phenomenon and hero of Premier League s Redthorn Rangers FC. Max s grief stricken wife, Kathie, vows to disprove the verdict of suicide. She has an ally in Bernard Cummings, a notorious sports journalist and TV pundit, who has long nurtured a burning ambition to expose corruption in the modern game. Kathie, beautiful and talented, achieves personal success as an interior designer.Her teenage affair with Max, which claimed her...
